DETAILED ACTION

Claims 1-2, 5-12 are pending in this application, which is an RCE of Serial Number 10/516797. Amended claims 1, 7, 11-12 are noted.

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 7/21/06 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

Claims 1-2, 5-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

In claim 1 lines 6-7 and 12-13, the phrases “exclusively providing the vaporized first organic material and the first carrier gas stream into a chamber containing the substrate” and “exclusively providing the vaporized second organic material and the second carrier gas stream into a chamber containing the substrate” is deemed new matter as there is no support in the original specification which recited exclusively providing an organic material.

Art Unit: 1762

The same issue applies to claims 7, 11-12.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claims 1-2, 5-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over

Tera et al. (2001/0031379). Tera discloses a method of forming an organic EL (electroluminescent) device in which an organic luminescent material is disposed between a pair of electrodes and deposited on a substrate (paragraph 3). The pair of electrodes can be an anode and a cathode (paragraphs 29 and 31). The deposition of the organic luminescent materials is repeated to form two distinct layers 3, 4 (paragraph 61). In one embodiment, tetratriphenylamine (TPTE) is deposited on the anode to form a hole transporting layer 3 which is subsequently doped with tris (8-quinolinol) aluminum (Alq) to form an organic luminescent layer 4 (paragraph 30). However, the reference fails to specifically teach that the organic materials are exclusively provided by a carrier gas.

Art Unit: 1762

It is well known in the vapor deposition art to utilize a carrier gas to increase the amount of precursor available for a more efficient reaction. Indeed, Tera teaches that trimethylaluminum is vaporized and transferred into the reaction furnace by a carrier gas such as nitrogen (paragraph 38). It would have been obvious to incorporate the use of a carrier gas for the formation of the organic luminescent layers in Tera with the expectation of obtaining a more efficient deposition.

The limitations of claims 2 and 5-12 have been addressed above.
